THE FALL OF RICHMOND.

England Intensely Excited Over the News—Immediate Advance in American Securities—Fall in Confederate Bonds—Decline of the Rebel Loan, &c., &c.

The news of the fall of Richmond produced intense excitement in England, but it arrived too late to admit of the papers generally commenting on it, and as a matter of course the fact had risen from the 15th to the 16th but (Sunday), no one of the leading journals had time to expound said day-regimen.

The London Times says that the army of Virginia, as long deemed invincible, the pride, the hope, the resource of the Confederacy, has ceased to exist, and with it the cause for which it fought, the hopes which it inspired and the fanatics. Richmond, which received it and gave it for a time a dignity which it could never have acquired while it remained among the cotton plantations, where it has its home, is now a mere provincial town. Whatever else the Confederates may forget with will be the same grey and shabby uniform which has been their badge of honor up to this time, as the Lacedemonians were proud of their red cloaks, and the Romans of the purple of the toga. The defection he would carry it where food for the rank and file could be obtained, and where the fugitives from the Northern States in New York could in nothing but an enemy. Richmond, as enduring such the eleventh hour to free itself from the incubus.

The London Advertiser says—The further evacuation appears to be inevitable, and it is to be hoped that it will result for with honor equally, to the cities of the war or of the Confederacy. The fall of Richmond is the fall of the Confederacy, and we may expect to hear of its surrender without any further delay.

The other English papers publish, as yet, upon the news.

The Effect in Liverpool.

Our despatches from Liverpool, dated on the 16th of April, in stating that the news of the fall of Richmond had arrived there—The fall of Richmond is the universal topic to-day. The news was received with the greatest joy on all Union's common, and are strengthened in the assertion that the Confederacy is now at an end. Many persons say that when they left Liverpool the city was quiet, but still there was some manifestation of joy.

The News in Manchester.

A despatch from Manchester says—The fall of Richmond is entirely unexpected by the Confederate's agencies.

The Confederate flag was hauled down at the office of the editorial rooms in Liverpool on Manchester.

The London Post says the Government is considering the question of Judge Smith, of Montreal, for giving protection and dangerous charge to the subject of war by Admiralties.

President Lincoln's Assassination Announced in Havana—Excitement Against Maximilian and Attacks Maximiliano, &c.

OUR HAVANA CORRESPONDENCE.

HAVANA, Tuesday, April 18, 1865.

The arrival yesterday afternoon of the steamer Lloyd, bringing the melancholy news of the assassination of the President of President Lincoln, and the attempted assassination of Secretary Seward and Seward, caused a great deal of excitement.

The Spanish residents of this locality were relieved the most by the news, and, as usual, it was immediately supposed that Secretary Seward was dead.

The secret intelligence of the assassination of the President before noon caused the flags of the different consuls to be hoisted at half mast, and, however, lacked upon the other as a very sad affair, and the Spanish flag was the only one which was hoisted directly on receiving it.

To-day the American Consulate displays the flag at half mast, and the Spanish flag is also at half mast. Many of the leading merchants have done likewise.

Intelligence in no agency Cuban has received from Maximilian's representatives in Mexico, and it is believed that the Emperor will be very much annoyed by the assassination of President Lincoln, as Maximilian has been the greatest friend of the United States.

The Spanish Government at Cuba, Mexico, which receives the news from the United States, has been very much attached to the United States and Slaughter Secretary of State Seward, and the assassination of the President will be followed up closely, and perhaps great complications will arise between the United States and Spain. The Spanish Government at Cuba, Mexico, which receives the news from the United States, has been very much attached to the United States and Slaughter Secretary of State Seward, and the assassination of the President will be followed up closely, and perhaps great complications will arise between the United States and Spain.

THE WEEKLY HERALD.

Our Account of the Obsequies to Abraham Lincoln.

The Weekly Herald, for this week, in addition to its usual variety, will give a full report of the Obsequies of the late President in Washington City, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and at the Aftending Incidents along the route, with details of the Reception of the Body at the Old Hall, and of the Imposing Civic and Military Procession that attended the removal of the remains from the City Hall to the Hearse.

THE SITUATION.

The remains of President Lincoln arrived in Albany about twelve o'clock last night, and will be conveyed in the Assembly Chamber by a torchlight procession, during a short interval, to-day, and will be then deposited in the Capitol. The funeral train will start in advance of us here, and proceed upon the direct route to Buffalo, and will probably reach the moment of the body in the Central Railroad depot. During all the time there was a continual stream of the mourners passing before it, and the number who were unable to gain admittance of the hall were unable to do so in the slightest degree.

Junius Brutus Booth, brother of Wilkes Booth, the murderer of President Lincoln, was arrested in Philadelphia yesterday, on the charge of complicity with the Old Capitol Prison.

Important proceedings regarding the repudiation by Secretary Seward and Attorney-General Speed by the French correspondents. Even the minister of the French Emperor has only more of the President as an associate before granting the issue of passports, while the Secretary of State has the same final control as before, and the Attorney-General has only to say that he has no objection to the passports of the correspondents already granted to his action.

The news of the fall of Richmond, although reported, was not officially confirmed in Europe at the time our last steamer sailed. The belief that it was in North American hands was almost universal. There was a general impression that Lee was in quick retreating order, however. In Central America the people were in a state of excitement over the great anxiety by the death of President Lincoln, of Gen. Grant, and several other prominent men in the United States, and looked on with interest for the result. Business and labor was unaffected by the event. Business and labor was unaffected by the event. Business and labor was unaffected by the event.

The news of the surrender of Lee's army to Gen. Grant, and the capture of Richmond, reached this city yesterday morning, and created the most intense excitement. Flags were displayed on the public buildings and on the shipping, and the streets were literally thronged with people. Business was entirely suspended, and the whole city was given up to the wildest demonstrations of joy and enthusiasm.

The Board of Supervisors held a meeting yesterday, and acted upon a few routine papers and then adjourned to meet on the 1st of May next.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment in the case of Charles Tillinghast, convicted of the murder of his wife, in Centre street, and remitted the case to the Supreme Court, with directions to set aside the verdict of the jury and grant a new trial.

The case of Samuel R. Wilson versus the Brooklyn Insurance Company, of Brooklyn, was decided in favor of the latter by Judge Peckham, in the Supreme Court, circuit, in Brooklyn, yesterday. The suit was for the recovery of $1,000, the amount of a policy of insurance on a house which was burned by the police of the city, during the draft riots, in order to arrest a few rioters who were in the house. The insurance company refused to pay the amount of the policy, on the ground that the house was burned by the police to prevent the rioters from using it as a fortress, and that the police had no right to destroy the property of citizens in order to arrest a few rioters who were in the house. The jury, after a short consultation, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, and the decision of which was rendered by Judge Peckham, which was in favor of the defendants.

The Board of Aldermen held a meeting yesterday, and acted upon a few routine papers and then adjourned to meet on the 1st of May next.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer commenced the trial of Thomas Kelly, charged with the murder of Patrick Kelly

MOBILE.

Admiral Thatcher's Report of the Capitulation—Four Hundred Guns Taken, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, April 26, 1865.

The Navy Department has received the following:—

MAY ISLAND RENDEZVOUS, DAUPHIN I.,
UNITED STATES FLAGSHIP OCMULGEE, }
Mobile, April 13, 1865. }

SIR—In my last despatch, dated the 12th inst., I had the honor to advise the Department of the capture of Spanish Fort and Fort Alexis, the former the most formidable and extensive fortress of the city of Mobile, and that in connection with the capture of the latter, the rebel army had retreated and was in possession of the whole force.

The officers despatched by General Granger and myself to the city of Mobile, to receive the surrender of the city, returned to the fleet at noon of the 12th, and I immediately made preparations for the occupation of the city by the naval forces under the command of Commodore Palmer, and the following instructions were issued:

MOBILE HARBOR, OFF DE KAISE, April 12, 1865.

SIR—Upon the surrender of the city of Mobile to the land forces under the command of Major General Canby, U. S. Army, you will proceed with the vessels under your command to the city, and assume command of the naval forces in the harbor and waters adjacent. You will direct that the batteries and vessels of the enemy in the harbor be taken possession of, and that the flags of the United States be hoisted over them.

You will especially pay great attention to the

of the city, and to the property and persons of all citizens who have proved to be very favorably disposed and kind to our soldiers and sailors who have been prisoners of war.

Private property will be strictly respected in shipping, and the laws governed by a regulation issued by the Secretary of the Navy, dated the 26th of August, 1861.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

H. K. THATCHER,
Rear Admiral Commanding.

To Rear Admiral D. G. FARRAGUT, Commanding West Gulf Squadron.

NEWS FROM DANVILLE, VA.

Plunder of Commissary Stores by Citizens—Gold Eighteen Hundred—Flight and Annihilation—Movements of the Rebel Government at Danville, &c.

WASHINGTON, April 26, 1865.

The Richmond Whig of the 10th has been received here to-day. Such papers begin to present a good appearance. They are double sheets.

The Whig has the following:—

We have received a letter from one who has recently fled to get out from Danville; we have some interesting particulars of the state of affairs in that section, and the feeling of the people.

When this rebel government left there and the rebel General, Cooper, a number of citizens, with a mob spirit, and a large number of unprincipled soldiers and negroes, broke open the commissary and quartermaster stores of commissary stores, and after a short but desperate struggle against overwhelming numbers, succeeded.

The genius in charge of the stores at first attempted to resist the mob, but was quickly turned aside and the stores sent their sons rolling in flight.

The mob continued to plunder every part of the building, each person plundering according to his own fancy.

In one of the commissary stores there was a large quantity of meat salted, prepared to issue and put up in barrels. Some persons have brought to market and have commenced to do so, and as a matter the meat is very good, and is selling at a reasonable price, from fifteen to twenty cents per pound.

This horrible tragedy for a time put a check upon the plundering, however, and on a subsequent occasion, but with considerable more circumspection. On Commercial Row [Main street] there was a large quantity of bacon left. He had been expecting a good deal about his determination not to be conquered, saying that sooner than surrender he would take to the mountains, guerilla, or some thing of that sort. Of course all of this was considered mere bravado, but Easter Lily had made a flag of truce to meet the enemy, the object of which was not announced. We may mention in this connection the fact, which has been noticed, that a number of the ladies of Lynchburg either registered or compelled the so-called Provost Marshal to do so.

Navigation Westward.

The propellers, which started out early on Tuesday morning, after the storm, following up through the last night. They are bound to Toledo.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 26, 1865.

Business has been active to-day, and prices of all descriptions of merchandise have advanced. The effect of this was forcing in favor of a rise sometimes met in that direct. And the tendency of the stock and produce market was active and strong. Breadstuffs higher than at the opening, as also were provisions. Cotton sold at 65c, Hudson River 65, Reading 65, Michigan Central 85, Michigan Southern 84, Illinois Central 97, Cumberland and Pittsburg 85, Northwestern 41, Fort Wayne 78, Rock Island 79, Chicago and Rock Island 78, Canton 70, Cumberland 4.

Government securities were in demand for investment, the encouraging aspect of national affairs having strengthened confidence in the stability of values. And the tentative closed at an advance since Saturday morning of ¼ @ ½, and the range of 1881 ¾ @ ¾ was quoted lower as one orders the market was 1 @ 2½ per cent higher, and as the market closed the lowest figures were exhibited, with a very large business. Five was 99, 99 and 4, as one of the leading gems of the market. The New York Central 6, Harlem 130, Reading 1881, Michigan Central 120, Michigan Southern 84, Illinois Central 97, 1881, Cleveland and Pittsburg 80¾, Rock Island 79, Northwestern 41, Fort Wayne 78, Chicago and Rock Island 78, Canton 69¾.

The gold market opened strong, but, as for a moment that the Cabinet meeting had settled on Booth's guilt without time to involve the extension of the income tax to 10 @ 5 per cent, it became heavy. Subsequently it gradually recovered on the acknowledgment of the rumors Another rumor to the effect that General Grant had been assassinated, and the prospect of a change in the policy of the administration, caused a sudden excitement in gold, which was followed by a still subsequent reaction to the same depression. The return of gloomy feelings will be the prospect of a large crop of cotton here, but it will cause a direct influence in promoting the flow of gold. The news likely also has its bearing on the public mind as the rate of money does without any. Exchange of three days on sight was negotiated at 9½, and 60 days on sight registered on the line of March was 109½ @ 109¾. The gold premium was—

1863	104¼	104½	104½
1864	104¼	104½	104½
1865	104¼	104½	104½

Foreign exchange is in fair demand. Bankers sell 109¾ @ 110 for sixty days' sterling on London, and 9½ @ 9¾ on three days. The domestic exchange market was quiet, but with an improved feeling. Sales were reported at 1 @ 1½ per cent discount for New Orleans, Mobile and Memphis funds.

Money continues very abundant at 6 @ 6 per cent, with exceptional transactions based upon governments, at 6¼. The necessary ease greatly assists the rise of prices for securities of all descriptions, and a much higher range of quotations is predicted for the "bulls" in anticipation. Stocks in general in Under Ground boards are particularly negative, and the tentative are regarded as a token of wealth to advance high rates at present prices, but it is well to remember that Wall street is not the country at large, yet, and that the latter is proverbially treacherous. There is no immediate necessity for a change.

There is considerable activity in petroleum stocks, although very little change has taken place in the quotations. There has been some advance in "Canton" the "United States" has declined, and "Rathbone" has been sold at the close. The following are the low prices of petroleum stocks presents facilities for speculation which they afford, either investment or to-day, and bears quotations of small trade transactions, which are not to be found in Gregory & Sherman, or while there as elsewhere, and many have said to be more than the value of the property at present high prices. It is encouraged that petroleum shares will be advanced, and also strength, and the tendency is upward.
